GIFT ENTERPRISES.—A manufacturer in New York city is filling an order for 2,000 thimbles, at eighteen cents per dozen, for the manager of a popular gift enterprise. "No blanks. Every ticket entitles the holder to a present."

FINED FOR HUGGING.—In Hartford, Conn., the other day, a young man, for hugging and kissing a couple of young girls, after they had told him it was against their principles, was fined, at the police court, $23.32.

Shun evil company, and evil company will shun you.

PATRICK'S DAY RIOTS.—During the passage, in New York, of a procession of Irish societies, on St. Patrick's Day, a truckman, in endeavoring to remove his team from the route, was seriously attacked by the members of one of the societies, they deeming his motions too slow. The police endeavored to protect him, when the Irish attacked them and drove them off, but, being reinforced, the police endeavored to make some arrests, when they were attacked by large masses of Irish, who seriously wounded some fifteen of the officers. Large reinforcements of police arriving, the assailants withdrew.

Later in the day, several of the rioters were taken out of the procession to the station-house. The above occurred on Grand and Pitt streets. Subsequently, another quite serious melee took place on East Broadway, occasioned by the police arresting a rioter. Two officers were badly injured. An Irish marshal, named Clark, was arrested for attempting to kill a policeman with a sword. Captain Helme, of the police, was badly injured. All sorts of weapons were used by the Irish, including clubs, bludgeons, swords, pistols, muskets, etc.

The Herald, of Wednesday, says: The riots which occurred on St. Patrick's Day were the subject of excited conversation among the public generally, and the policemen especially, yesterday. Officer Kearney, one of the first of the policemen maltreated, gives an exciting statement of the affair. The wounded are still suffering seriously, and, although improving, several of them are still in a precarious condition.

FROM HAVANA.—The New York Herald says: Our Havana correspondence, dated March 13, says that a royal decree had arrived from Spain abolishing several taxes hitherto enforced, to take effect in July next, when a new impost substituted for them will go into operation. The measures are apparently liberal, but will in reality add 20,000,000 to the revenue from Cuba. The coolie immigration is increasing rapidly, and is attended with more than the usual cruelty and inhumanity. Passengers leaving Havana are subjected to the annoyance and detention consequent on the enforcement of the laws requiring their identification. Vessels from Europe with clean bills of health are not subjected to quarantine. The sugar market is dull. Freights are not active, and exchange is tending downwards, currency on New York quoting at 26 and 27 per cent. discount.

ENCOURAGING FROM OLD VIRGINIA. The Fredericksburg News contains encouraging information: It is refreshing to learn that while some have been whining and discouraging other people and making themselves abominable nuisances generally, the real men in Virginia have been at work and are about to receive the fruit of their labors.

On the Rappahannock River, between this place and its mouth, we hear there is four times as much produce waiting shipment to market as there was last year. On this side alone there is now, at least, $200,000 worth against $50,000 last year.

Then the fish crop is beginning to be harvested. That grows without planting, and is always better after a hard winter, and its profits are always large. We should like to have an estimate of the herring, shad and rock fish "fundum." Let Governor Wise count the eggs in a big herring roe, and then make the calculation.

There is more tobacco on the South side of James River than ever before. In Richmond they don't begin to have room to receive what is expected there. It always brings a good price and the New York market is now bare of tobacco, and prices will be better.

The wheat in the Valley, and everywhere, looks splendidly—another Providential compensation for so much snow.

Altogether, the prospects are encouraging. It is sinful and foolish and criminal to grumble. Thank God and work harder, and we shall see better times.

ARREST OF A FENIAN SPY.—A despatch from Toronto, C. W., dated March 18, says: A Fenian spy was arrested at the Suspension Bridge on Saturday. He had been followed from this city by detectives, who, on searching his satchel, found a plan of the city of Toronto and plans of buildings, maps of the Niagara frontier, and a list of the names of the judges who have sentenced the Fenians at the recent trials.

He is said to be a relative of one of the convicted Fenians now in the penitentiary. He was brought to this city this morning, and it is expected that there will be important developments at his trial.

It having been understood that the Hibernians intended to parade the streets yesterday, the police authorities were instructed not to permit any band of music to play on the street, and not to allow any assemblage of persons carrying banners, &c., as it was calculated to create a breach of the peace. The procession consequently did not take place.

SEIZURE OF THE MOST INGENUOUSLY ENGRAVED PLATES FOR COUNTERFEITING GREENBACKS EVER DISCOVERED.—For many months, the detective force attached to the Treasury Department have been on the alert for counterfeiters of greenbacks of different denominations. Persons have been arrested from time to time, and some have been convicted. Plates have been discovered, some producing very good imitations of greenbacks of the smaller denominations. But it remained for Col. W. C. Wood, the Superintendent of the Old Capitol prison during the war, to arrest, at Cincinnati, on Friday last, Charles Ulrich, who, from the evidence of his guilt found upon him, will probably turn out to be the most ingenious and successful counterfeiter, so far as the execution of the plates and the printing of the notes are concerned, that has yet been detected.

Ulrich is a German. Col. Wood has been on his track for months, and, according to the former's statement, it has cost him a good deal of money to keep out of the way of the Government detectives. Ulrich acknowledges that it was his purpose to ruin the credit of the Government, by throwing on the market the product of his ingenuity. Experts of the Government pronounce his imitation of the $100 notes on the National Central Bank, of Boston, and the National Bank of New York, complete plates of which were found upon the prisoner when taken, and were shown to us yesterday, to be the finest specimens of workmanship ever seen. The imitation is perfect. The chemical process theory, about the perfection of which so much has been said, is entirely knocked to pieces, as developed by the splendid specimens of Ulrich's handiwork. Besides the plates alluded to, Col. Wood also found in the prisoner's possession plates, partly finished, of $5 notes on the National Bank of New York, and on other banks.

HOPEFUL.—The New York Herald, of Tuesday, after giving a summary of the supplementary bill, says: We expect before next March to announce to the world the complete re-establishment of the Union on the new basis of universal liberty and civil equality, with the restoration of every rebel State to Congress. The President has manifested in his appointment of his five district military commanders—Schofield, Sickles, Thomas, Ord and Sheridan—his purpose to execute these laws of Congress faithfully; and from the Southern civil experience and good services of each of these officers, we are satisfied that they will carry out these laws as quietly and kindly as possible to the people of the several States concerned. Whether, therefore, ten excluded States shall or shall not have a voice in this Congress and in the election of the next and our next President, will depend upon the course of the ruling white class of each of the States directly concerned; and that class, though to some extent disfranchised in this work of reconstruction, we are gratified to believe, is rapidly coming round to the wise policy of a prompt and faithful compliance with the terms of Congress.

The prospect, therefore, of Southern restoration is good; and the encouraging indications we are daily receiving from Virginia and all the way through to Texas, warrant the belief of immense advantages to all those States in the way of Northern capital and enterprise, in view of large crops, even this year, of corn, tobacco, cotton, rice and sugar. Cheerful submission to manifest destiny will surely bring to the South, in advance of Southern restoration, those great essentials of financial confidence in the development of Southern industry—wealth and prosperity.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE IN FAVOR OF "FAIR PLAY."—An illustration of the free fight propensities of the new presiding officer of the Senate took place on Saturday, which, though in contrast with the dignified punctiliousness of the late incumbent of the place, is quite complimentary to his love of fair play. During the rather exciting debate on the supplementary reconstruction bill, two or three sharp passages took place between Senators Trumbull and Howard, relative to some of the amendments proposed, the latter resenting very warmly a statement made by Mr. Trumbull, that those who were sustaining the amendments proposed were placing obstructions in the way of reconstruction. Mr. Trumbull rose in reply, and without addressing himself to the chair, proceeded to lecture, at a sound rate, Senators Howard and Edmunds, turning his back upon the chair and pitching into the offending Senators in the most approved style of parliamentary fencing. Senator Johnson, who was standing at the clerk's desk, near the chair, called Mr. Wade's attention to the parliamentary indecorum, and suggested a call to order. The chair, however, failing to see any serious violation of rules, indifferently turned his eyes upon the scene and kindly said, "Oh, let them fight it out; let them fight it out." The friendly little mill ended without interruption from the referee.

THE NEGRO VOTE.—We think that there is no doubt that the larger proportion of the negro vote will be cast at the suggestion or by the control of those of the whites, whose influence and political strength Congress has sought to destroy by elevating the freedmen to the enjoyment of the elective franchise. The Albigenses will probably be allowed to elect a large majority of their class to the convention, and be permitted to form the new State constitution without opposition; but we are inclined to believe that in all subsequent elections the negroes will vote not with that irresponsible set, but as the men of property, education and breeding, whom they will doubtless disfranchise, may direct. The negroes have learned something since they have been made free, one of which is that their old masters are their best friends. In the towns and cities the radicals will probably hold the control of this vote, but in the country the planters will have sufficient influence to put them all right. The very stick which the radicals would use against us will be the one with which we will break their heads. They seek to destroy the political strength of the South by giving the ballot to the negro. We will use that very ballot to recover our lost position.

We think that if the better class of the Southern people will let the Albigenses and negroes form a constitution and do all that is necessary for reconstruction, and then pitch in and control the negroes afterwards, that it will be found easy of accomplishment and to be the best policy for our section.

CALIFORNIA.—A New York paper notices the arrival at that port of a heavy cargo of grain and flour from California, and says: Heretofore we have looked for gold dust and silver bars from the State of California, latterly the quality of her wines have been noticeable, but within the past two months she has sent us wheat and flour in such bulk as to attract attention and merit comment. By the arrival of the steamer this week 2,000 barrels, 2,016 sacks and 4,022 packages of flour were added to the stock in market, while by a sailing vessel which arrived on the same day were received 17,435 sacks of wheat.

Although this flour is not as desirable for family use as some of our Eastern brands, it is excellent in quality and pays a very fair profit. Old merchants who, in 1843, paid from $100 to $250 a barrel in San Francisco for Eastern flour, may well open their eyes at a profit of a dollar a barrel on a similar article raised at the other end of the same route.

ARRESTS WITHOUT WARRANT.—IMPORTANT DECISION.—A case was recently tried in Worcester, Mass., and a verdict of $100 given for the plaintiff, who sued the city marshal for detaining him as a party accused of crime without a warrant. The law laid down by the court in substance requires that when a party is arrested on suspicion without a warrant (except in cases where new facts exonerate the party from suspicion), a complaint must be made before a magistrate as soon as possible, or the officer responsible for the arrest is liable to be assessed in damages for an unlawful act.

ADMIRAL SEMMES.—The New Orleans Commercial, noticing the connection of Admiral Semmes with the Memphis Bulletin, says: We wish Admiral Semmes would turn his attention to organizing a steam fleet from our gulf ports to those of South and Central America, Mexico and the Islands. His practical knowledge upon that subject would be worth more to the South at this moment than many volumes of disquisitions upon the political remedies of the future.

The Lynchburg News states that a revolutionary hero yet survives, in the person of Mr. James Farmer, who lives in the Yellow Branch neighborhood, in Campbell County. This patriarch is now in his 106th year, and served during the last campaign of the war which established the liberty of America. Notwithstanding his extreme age, the old hero enjoys remarkably good health, is hale and vigorous, and walks about his plantation without assistance.

WATERFALLS FALLING DOWN.—The scientific exposure in the English journals in regard to the chignons is having a very marked effect upon that article in New York. The ladies are beginning very generally to throw it aside, and it is observed that at the opera in New York but few are worn in the more fashionable of the boxes. There are places in that city where thousands of dollars are invested in the manufacture of them.

PRICES NOW AND THEN.—A comparison of present prices with those of the beginning of last year shows that breadstuffs have advanced on an average about 35 per cent., while dairy products and beef and pork have declined 20 per cent., and groceries about 10 per cent. A comparison of the prices of March, 1866, with those of March, 1865—when the war terminated—exhibited no material change.

[National Republican.]

In consequence of the action of the Senate rejecting nominations, Philadelphia is now without a naval officer, a collector of customs, a director of the mint, a collector of internal revenue of the first district, and, until Mr. Bingham was confirmed, was also without a postmaster. For one of these positions, there have been three rejections, and for the others, save one, there have been two nominations each.

John Mitchell, now residing in Richmond, writes a letter, in which, whilst he expresses his sympathy for the cause of Ireland, he disapproves of the Fenian movements, at this time, as premature, hasty, and not likely to facilitate the object intended.

MISSOURI.—Governor Fletcher, of Missouri, has gone into the newspaper business—that is, he is suing every editor who intimates that Fletcher is no better than he should be, which is doubtless true.

GRAIN IN NEW YORK.—The stock of grain in the New York market, on Tuesday, amounted to 1,400,000 bushels of wheat, 1,700,000 bushels of corn, and 1,880,000 bushels of oats.

Last week, $388,000 in fractional currency was received by the United Treasurer from the printing division of the Treasury Department.
